HE FELL TO HIS DEATH.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—An unknown man met a terrible fate last night by falling from the top of Telegraph Hill into the quarry operated by Gray Brothers. The cliff at this point is about 150 feet high and has no fence or protection of any kind to keep unwary travelers from being dashed to death against the sharp rocks below. The man's body was not discovered until today owing to the fact that the force of the fall had driven it almost out of sight in the soft mud and ooze in which it chanced to fall.

HOWARD GUILTY OF GOEBEL MURDER.

FRANKFORT, Ky., April 30.—The jury in the case of James Howard, on trial for the murder of William Goebel, has just found the defendant guilty and fixed the punishment at life imprisonment. After the disagreement at 10 o'clock the judge ordered them to retire to their room for further conference. This they did, reporting at 11 o'clock.

FRANKFORT, Ky., April 30.—Howard was not visibly affected by the verdict. The jurors took only one ballot on the question of guilt or innocence, all twelve men voting for a verdict of guilty. The disagreement was as to the extent of punishment, and on this question nine voted for the death penalty and three for a life sentence. On the next ballot two of those who voted for life sentence, came over with the nine. Juror Burke then announced that he would under no circumstances vote for the death penalty and a verdict of life sentence was afterwards agreed upon.

This was Howard's third trial.

A MON CHATEAU IN RUINS.

A. Mon Chateau, the well-known rural inn which, for many years has occupied a picturesque site in Pleasant Valley, and which has been the resort of bon vivants, was practically destroyed by fire this afternoon.

The fire broke out in the kitchen. The flames were fanned by a lively breeze and soon enveloped nearly the entire structure.

As the hostelry is outside the city limits no assistance could be rendered by the fire department of Oakland.

Among the teachers and scholars of the neighboring school and passers-by, and those succeeded in throwing water, which secured from neighboring wells and hydrants, upon the flames, thus preventing the entire destruction of the place. The building is the property of Eugene Gruggel, who ran it for a number of years, but leased it to another some time ago.

Later.—The destruction of the chateau is complete.

CHINESE ATTACK AMERICAN LINEMEN.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The State Department has received a cablegram from United States Consul General McWade at Canton, dated yesterday, stating that an attack of anti-foreign Chinese made an attack at Yuan Tal on North River, 140 miles from Canton, upon a party of American engineers.

The Consul appealed to Lieutenant Anderson, commanding the American gunboat Callao, and the officer went immediately to the rescue.

The Consul-General then lodged a formal complaint with the Chinese officials.

The attack is not believed to be associated with the Boxer movements. It is conjectured that the engineers, in the course of railroad construction or similar work, had run counter to some intense Chinese superstition by invading a graveyard or in some way committing a sacrilege in the Chinese view.

DR. CHAMLEY IS GIVEN FREEDOM.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 30.—Superior Judge Cook has dismissed Dr. S. R. Chamley from custody. Chamley was accused of having caused the death of Mrs. Catherine Nevins of Wells, Nev., some months ago because of the lack of care of a wound after an operation for cancer, which resulted in her bleeding to death. He was held to answer on the charge of manslaughter by the police judge, but Cook held that the evidence was insufficient.

WHAT THE UNION MEANS ARE DOING

TEAMSTERS WILL HOLD A MEETING ING AND DISCUSS WAGES.

Tomorrow, May Day, is sure to be a notable day in the history of labor all over the civilized world. It is on this anniversary that labor in Europe has been in the habit of showing its strength in mammoth demonstrations or by the inauguration of great strikes. Declarations of harmony and good feeling between employer and employee have also often dated from this day.

While in this country the national Government has set apart a legal holiday in September in deference to labor, still, May Day possesses much interest for the working people. A few demonstrations mark the day in the East, and marking the dawn of summer, the day has often been chosen as the best on which to inaugurate strikes. The Eastern wind is rigorous, and during that season the working people cannot successfully carry on a protracted fight against capital, but in the genial months of summer the reverse is the case. So, the great convulsions that have marked the onward march of labor have usually manifested themselves with the approach of warm weather.

In this genial clime of California, where men can work in the open air nearly every day in the year, labor is so well organized that it can strike a blow at capital at almost any moment, because the weather makes it impossible for employers to import strike-breakers from other sections. It is astonishing how many agreements go into force and how many contracts are signed between master and man on May day.

CARPENTERS.

The Carpenters' Union and the Brotherhood of Teamsters of Oakland, in submitting the recent schedules for increased wages, stipulated that the workmen should not be employed on May day.

TEAMSTERS.

Attention will be given to the demands which the teamsters will make upon the daymen at the meeting to be held in the rooms of the Brotherhood of Teamsters on Webster street tonight. The new rules and regulations were drawn up about two months ago and considered and passed by the Federated Trades Council.

At 12 o'clock a contest did some business, and the members of the council were passing it, changing a clause putting the teamsters in a position as "not favoring" sympathetic strikes in place of not countenancing these strikes at all.

Also, taking away from their business a certain amount of arbitrary power to expel a man who broke the rules with reference to the matter to the brotherhood. Portions of some of the clauses in the rules are here given: 1. All drivers must have their breakfast before taking out teams; 2. A day's work to end at 6 and 7 o'clock; 3. The new rules were passed after that time; 4. Drivers shall not go to the barn on Sundays or holidays, but, if employed to do so, shall receive a regular day's pay; 5. Employers, when wishing to engage teamsters, will apply at the headquarters of the brotherhood and not employ on their own account; 6. Freight to be put on sidewalks only; 7. Baggage and trunks to be put on first floor; 8. Five dollars fine for infringement of rules.

CALIFORNIA'S BIRTHRATE.

While it is a matter for some small gratification that Oakland should make a better showing in the birth rate than any other large city in California, the figures can only be contemplated with soberness. Why is the birthrate lower in California than in any other State of the Union? Why should there be such an extraordinary decline since 1890? For the whole country, according to the vital statistics gathered by the interior department, the birthrate is 218 for every 1000 women between the ages of 15 and 44, but in California the rate is only 372. For Oakland it is 204 and for Los Angeles it is 236. In 1900 Oakland's birthrate was 345 and that of Los Angeles 352.

This spells race suicide in real earnest if the statistics present an accurate statement of the case. It is a matter of the gravest concern that California should have the highest divorce rate and the lowest birthrate of any State in the Union. We boast of our low death rate, but we have a showing here more terrible than elsewhere. It is something deeply suggestive, something affecting the very vitals of the race as it exists here.

The conditions for human fecundity are apparently more favorable in California than elsewhere. The climate is peculiarly healthful and benign. The scale of average comfort is probably higher here than in any other part of the world. The diet is more varied and generous. The conditions of life generally are easy. Nowhere else do women reach such physical perfection. It is the marvel of all travelers that our women should be so robust, well favored and fully developed. Yet they don't bear many children.

What is the reason?

Carnegie had better hurry up with that Temple of Peace, for it may be needed as a hospital from the way the war clouds are gathering.

At Hulise, the pal and protector of Jim McKinney, the Tulare outlaw, says he is "so sorry" Marshal Packard and Deputy Sheriff Tibbet were killed; yet Hulise brought McKinney to Jacksonfield, hid him in his room, bought him food and ammunition, and informed him of the movements of the officers. He is sorry now because his neck will be stretched as it ought to be for the dastardly part he took in the affair. Whether he fired a shot or not, he is as much responsible for the murder of Packard and Tibbet as if he shot them both down. Ex-convict, opium fiend, consort with thieves, harlots and Chinese! If ever a man deserved hanging Al Hulise does.

Civil Service Commissioner Mer-shon's experience moves one to inquire if any more of Mayor Schmitz's appointees have been playing shuffle-board with political saloon keepers.

We cannot blame James J. Hill for trying to take the Oriental trade from San Francisco to Seattle, but we can blame ourselves if we let him do it.

Since 1898 the imports of opium have increased five hundred per cent. It is estimated that the population has increased ten per cent during the same period. The imports of cocaine have trebled. This indicates that the people of this country are becoming more and more addicted to the use of stupefying drugs. Investigation discloses that the bulk of the opium imported comes in tins from China prepared for smoking. This calls attention to the rapid spread of the vice of opium smoking. The Chinese have domesticated the debasing habit wherever they have made a lodgement. Opium dens abound in every large city in the country, and the terms "dope," "hup" and "pipe dreams" are popularly understood even in Boston, and have become fixed in the vernacular of the day. All of which shows that the Chinese have inoculated our people with a moral pestilence that is spreading with baleful rapidity; for while we have stopped the Chinese from coming, their cursed drug keeps on coming in vastly increasing quantities.

Adolph Sylva, late boss of Sausalito, seems to have found his level. He has been sent to the county jail for ninety days.

We understand now why the published pictures of Senator Stone of Missouri represent him with a puckered up countenance. The local papers say he has been dabbling in alum lately.

The Guaranty Investment Company, a San Francisco concern that held out glowing inducements for investors, has failed. Naturally concerns of this character always fail when they get to the end of their rope, or rather to the limit of the credulity of the public. They keep on getting money till the time comes to make good, and then—bam! A host of swindled dupes make a great outcry for a time, while the financial fakery seek cover till the storm blows over; and presently the whole thing is forgotten and the con-artist public goes up against some other slick swindle.

POOR OLD MILES.

Criticism of General Miles' Philippine report are met with the retort that criticism has been provoked because the report reflects on the manner in which Americans have managed things in the archipelago. In a sense, this is a fact, but it by no means implies what the champions of Miles would convey.

It is not the truth that is objected to but the manner in which it is told and the object the telling is made to serve that arouse indignation. Clearly the General of the Army has gone out of his way to make a general statement intended to discredit American administration in the Philippine Islands and to find fault with military operations he was not permitted to direct. Nevertheless, the showing is one that need not make us ashamed. The administration can face it with composure and confidence.

General Miles has told us nothing that is new. He has merely collected all the grievances, mistakes, sporadic instances of cruelty and wrong and personal shortcomings incident to our five years' occupation of the islands under peculiarly trying circumstances, and retailed them in one batch in a form to convey a false impression and to serve a political or personal purpose.

For instance, he alluded to abuses that were corrected two years ago. He recounted cruelties that were exposed and punished long before he started for Manila, carefully suppressing this illuminating fact. He expatiated on the misconduct of officers who have long since been retired, mustered out or dismissed from the service. Conditions of the past were also dealt with as though they existed in the present, and complaints against the civil administration which have been forwarded to Washington, and are being investigated through the proper channel, were given a place in his report—it is easy to guess what for.

His recommendation about furnishing the troops in the Philippines with beef on the hoof is threatening old straw. It was recommended before, tried and found to be expensive, inexpedient and unsatisfactory. The native beef is tough, stringy and unwholesome, and disease has so thinned out the stock as to make the supply wholly insufficient. It is exceedingly costly to transport live cattle for such a long distance by ship. That was tried, and the cattle that did not die arrived in such a state of fever and emaciation as to be unfit for slaughter.

All the details of this experiment are on file in the war department, yet Miles ignores the official reports to give the commissary department a kick.

The report smacks more of the politician than the soldier, and is more calculated for service on the stump than for correcting evils in the Philippines. Still it is what might have been expected. While Miles is the titular head of the army, he has never been permitted to have the slightest voice in the direction of military affairs in the islands. His alleged tour of "official inspection" was undertaken on his own motion, evidently with the intention of making matters unpleasant for Secretary Root and the administration. He is to be retired next year, and seized the occasion to "butt" into Philippine affairs merely to serve ends of his own. His act was in the nature of an impertinent intrusion and savored of insubordination, for it was prompted by spite against his superiors.

Little comment is required. When the General of the Army uses his official position to discredit his country and to shame the uniform of the American soldier, the republic is humiliated only by the individual exposure. We feel like averting our eyes and walking backward to avoid seeing the pitiful mean spite and ignoble subterfuges exhibited by a man, who in times past did a man's part in a man's way to serve the nation on the battlefield. But now—let us draw the mantle of oblivion—and charity—over the frailty of a man whose small soul would not allow him to be great and honored.

THE BOHEMIAN'S PLAIN.

If I should die tonight,
And in my clothes
Should be a goodly sum of
Thirty cents,
Left lying there
In sweet repose—
I say,
If I should die tonight
And leave
Behind me in these cold
Precious years
The price of six large beers,
Or draught,
I quaffed by me and destined
To remain
Forever on the outside of
My friends
I should die.
And from the great beyond
Look back and see
That thirty cents taken
And spent foolishly
For bread
Or clothes,
Or some such empty thing;
And those six beers—
Long destined to be bought by me—
Now sold—
Down other throats,
Their destiny unfilled;
I say,
If I should die tonight
And go
From here to there
(Or where
It doesn't snow),
And, looking back from there
To here
Behold
Those six large beers—
So large, and O,
So cold!
Go coursing down the throats
Of other men,
For I would need them
Thrice!

Then why not smile and hide a grief

Paine's Celery Compound

SAYS: "I WAS BENEFITTED BEYOND MY EXPECTATION."

The claim that Paine's Celery Compound is the only honest medicine in the world for the cure of terrible neuralgia, nervous and blood diseases, is fully borne out by the strong and convincing letters of testimony received every day of the year by the proprietors of the popular medicine. Nothing else has ever possessed anything like the power of Paine's Celery Compound to restore a healthy nervous tone to the entire body and to thoroughly cleanse the blood, making it impossible for neuralgia or rheumatism to find a lodgment in the system. Ministers, professors, men generally, news-papers, men, public officials and workers, men whose daily outlay of vitality, because of hard, trying, anxious work, is excessive, find renewed nerve strength and vitality in Paine's Celery Compound. Its use dispels headaches, dizziness, heart trouble, general debility and languor that are so common in springtime. Rev. Jas. Doherty, Everett, Pa., writes thus:

"I have used Paine's Celery Compound for neuralgia and the blood. I was benefited beyond my expectation. It is indeed the medicine for my system. It keeps everything in good turn. There is no showy, worn-out feeling to the use of the medicine. Those who use it and derive no benefit from it simply abuse it."

LOHMAN'S MEN HAD TO BEAT THE UMPIRE.

Britt and Fitzgerald May Meet Again—Bowling Games on the Local Alleys.

Pete Lohman's pets had to beat Umpire Levy before they were able to take away the game from Sacramento yesterday by a score of 4 to 3. The trouble came about in the ninth inning when the Oakland bunch had the game won, but Levy wouldn't see it that way and on a rank decision made the teams play another inning. Lohman was mad and so was Captain Devereaux, and Pete even went so far as to order his men off the field. Devereaux was so hot that he grabbed the ball and fired it straight at Umpire Levy's head. As the ball missed the block of Levy by a few inches, there is no murder charge against the Oakland Captain.

The Seattle team defeated the San Francisco visitors at Seattle yesterday by a score of 11 to 1. It was a miserable game lost by San Francisco, because of their fielding.

A comedy of errors was enacted up Portland way in which the home team won out from Los Angeles by a score of 8 to 2.

The standing of the teams is as follows:

Clubs	W.	L.	P.C.
Los Angeles	29	6	.83
Sacramento	15	11	.57
San Francisco	10	12	.45
Seattle	11	15	.42
Oakland	12	18	.40
Portland	6	18	.25

FIGHTERS MAY MEET AGAIN.

NEGOTIATIONS PENDING FOR ANOTHER LIGHTWEIGHT FIGHT IN MAY.

The prospects for another fight between Jimmy Britt and his late antagonist, Willie Fitzgerald, in the very near future, are very good, and it is quite possible that the men will come together before the month of May.

SIMPLE REMEDY FOR CATARRH.

Just Breathe Hyomei Four Times a Day and be Cured.

If a few years ago some one had said you can cure catarrh by breathing air charged with a healing balsam, the idea would have been ridiculed and it remained for R. T. Booth, that eminent investigator in Hyomei, to discover this method of cure.

Hyomei has performed the most miraculous cures of catarrh and is today recognized by leading members of the medical profession as the only advertised remedy that can be relied upon to do just what it claims.

The complete outfit of Hyomei costs but $1.00 and consists of an inhaler, a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hyomei.

Breathe Hyomei through the inhaler for a few minutes four times a day and it will cure the worst case of catarrh. It soothes and heals the mucous membrane of the air passages, prevents irritation, and effects a complete and lasting cure.

The treasurer of the American Life Insurance Company, J. S. Nugent, of New York City, writes, "Hyomei has completely cured my daughter of catarrh from which she has been a sufferer for years."

In Oakland there are scores of well-known people who say they have been cured of catarrh by Hyomei. If it does not cure you, Osgood Bros. will return the money you paid for Hyomei. This is the strongest evidence that can be offered as to their faith in the remedy.

The trouble came about in the ninth inning when the Oakland bunch had the game won, but Levy wouldn't see it that way and on a rank decision made the teams play another inning. Lohman was mad and so was Captain Devereaux, and Pete even went so far as to order his men off the field. Devereaux was so hot that he grabbed the ball and fired it straight at Umpire Levy's head. ## EAGLES WIN BOWLING MATCH.

RACE FOR REPRESENTATION ON OAKLAND TEAM SIMMERING DOWN.

A spirited bowling match was rolled last night at the Oakland Bowling Alleys on Thirteenth street, between the Eagles and Americans and was won by the former by a score of 2175 pins to 2082. All of the bowlers seemed to have an off-day and rolled unusually low scores, but the match was interesting, nevertheless, for the reason that it was close.

The Eagles won the first two games and obtained a fair lead, and then went to pieces, while the American bowlers took a brace and won the last game by a margin of 103 pins and reducing the Eagles' margin to 96.

Following is the score.

In about two weeks time a doubles tournament will be held in this city open to Alameda county. Already there are many prospective entries.

THEY WILL GIVE A CANTATA.

CHILDREN OF METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL TO APPEAR ON STAGE.

BERKELEY, April 30.—For the benefit of the organ fund the Sunday school children of the Trinity Methodist church will appear in a cantata at Shattuck Hall this evening. Half a hundred children from some of the best known families in town will appear in "The Enchanted Wood," a pleasing cantata by Fannie Newberry and T. Martin Tower. Under the direction of Clinton R. Morse the young people have been carefully drilled until they give an excellent rendition of the piece.

By means of electric lights some grotesque effects will be produced on the stage to make it seem like a real fairy land, while the unique costumes of the participants will add to the general fairy-like scene. The Enchanted Wood will be represented very realistically on the stage in Shattuck Hall.

The plot of the cantata is a simple one, with many interesting features. Six children start out from school on an expedition into the woods, but after some quarrelling, separate and wander singly into the borders of an enchanted wood. Here, by order of the Fairy Queen, they are lured further on till they sink down exhausted and are then thrown into a deep sleep by six fairies with poppy wands.

Mother Goose, who is a guest at Court, then requests the pleasure of transforming them into such characters of her own choosing as they most resemble, and they are roused to find themselves Jack Horner, Jopeep, etc. Here they are kept at their tasks till a rescuing party of boy police, sent by the distracted teacher, comes to their assistance; but the police find it better, for some reason, to let them be, and they are lured on by fairy voices into the presence of the Queen and court, they are about to "charge" when suddenly transfixed by her potent wand, they are held as rigid as so many statues.

At length, however, all are released, and after wandering "through bog and briar" the living night, find their way back to their disconsolate teacher in the morning, thankful to be once more their proper selves, with a chance to correct their faults and resume their daily tasks in peace.

Muscle for the evening is to be furnished by the High School orchestra of the Sunday school. Besides the regular cantata some special numbers will be

WILL STUDY COST JUST ONE STEP OF IRRIGATION.

EXPERIMENTS ARE TO BE CARRIED OUT AT THE UNIVERSITY.

BERKELEY, April 30.—An extensive series of experiments in irrigation is to be carried out during the summer vacation by the advanced students of the University of California, under the direction of expert Elwood Mead. In the Santa Clara valley A. J. Turner will make extensive investigations to ascertain the cost of pumping water for irrigation. He will carefully collect data of the use of area watered, methods of distribution and expense of pumping. Professor J. N. Le Conte, who will be assisted by J. P. Roadhouse, will make similar investigations in Southern California. The entire subject of irrigation will receive more careful study than ever before, leading to some results which will be used in larger plans for irrigation that are to follow.

DR. LOEB MAKES ANOTHER IMPORTANT SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY.

BERKELEY, April 30.—In a series of the most remarkable experiments, which will throw great light on the problems of modern science, and partly revolutionize scientific thought, Dr. Jacques Loeb, the famous biologist of the University of California, has obtained results that have hitherto been thought impossible by the most sanguine investigators. Dr. Loeb after patient experimenting has succeeded in fertilizing the ova of the sea urchin with the sperm of the star fish, producing a hybrid in the laboratory such as nature has never brought forth. To thus control the formation of life, to produce life forms hitherto unknown, is a triumph that takes a long stride towards the ultimate discovery of the secret of life itself.

For some time Prof. Loeb has been quietly working on his remarkable experiments, but not until late yesterday afternoon did he make his results public in the following bulletin:

"It is well known that it has thus far been impossible to hybridize animals which are not in close blood relationship. Yet it seemed to me that in order to obtain more definite data for the problem of evolution the apparent barriers to a successful hybridization of not closely related animals should be removed. For a number of years I have made experiments in this direction, and on one occasion, in my paper on 'The Artificial Parthenogenesis,' in Annals, 1901, I mentioned some of them.

"Last summer it occurred to me that possibly the idea which guided me in my experiments on artificial parthenogenesis and other problems might also lead to positive results in this case, namely, that a slight change in the constitution of the sea water (or the blood) may give the tissues properties which they do not possess ordinarily. This assumption was correct, and I have recently succeeded in fertilizing the eggs of a sea urchin (Strongylocentrotus purpuratus) with the sperm of a starfish (Asterias ochracea). The main results of my experiments may be summarized as follows:

"1. It is impossible to fertilize the eggs of Strongylocentrotus purpuratus with the sperm of Asterias (or of any other of the starfish tried) in normal sea water.

"2. I have found a series of solutions in which the eggs of S. purpuratus can be fertilized with the sperm of Asterias ochracea.

"3. The sea water contains certain substances which, if added in certain proportions, prevents the fertilization of the egg of S. purpuratus with the sperm of Asterias ochracea.

"4. The same solutions in which the eggs of S. purpuratus can be fertilized by the sperm of the starfish render difficult or impossible the fertilization of the same eggs by the sperm of their own species. But in the same solution the eggs of S. purpuratus are very readily fertilized by the sperm of their own species when those constituents of the sea water are added which inhibit the hybridization of the egg of the sea urchin with the sperm of the starfish.

"5. In some experiments as many as 50 per cent of the eggs of the sea urchin formed the characteristic membrane of fertilization in the artificial solutions in about half an hour after the sperm of the starfish had been added. The same eggs began to segment at the proper time while the eggs without a proper membrane remained unaltered. Under proper conditions practically each of these segmented eggs reached the blastula stage and many the gastrula stage. Some remained alive for more than a week and showed the differentiation of the intestine. Inasmuch as the parthenogenetic larvae of S. purpuratus as well as the artificially hatched larvae of this species form a skeleton while the larvae of the starfish form no skeleton, it may be of interest that the hybrids between the two formed, or at the best only a very rudimentary skeleton. It is not impossible that the spermatozoan of the starfish contains substances which interfere with the formation of a skeleton.

"6. Each series of experiments was accompanied by the necessary control experiments to exclude the two possible sources of error, namely, contamination of the eggs by sperm of their own species, and second, artificial parthenogenesis. The first source of error was excluded by the fact that in the experiments in which only the sperm of Asterias was used, no egg formed a membrane or developed in a normal sea water. The second error was excluded by the fact that when the eggs were kept in the artificial solutions without the addition of the sperm of Asterias no egg formed a membrane or developed in sea water, however, as the sperm of Asterias was added, membranes were formed and the eggs began to segment at the proper time.

"These facts may also have a bearing upon certain phenomena of infection and immunity. One is almost tempted to say that what in sea water the eggs of S. purpuratus are immune against the sperm of the starfish, in the artificial solution they become almost or completely immune against the sperm of their own species, and at the same time lose their immunity to the sperm of the starfish. It is rather remarkable fact that surprisingly small though very definite quantities of certain constituents of the sea water suffice to reverse the character of the immunity. "As a brief statement of the chemical side of these experiments is almost impossible, I will reserve it for the fuller publication, which is in preparation and will appear shortly.

SAN LEANDRO, April 30.—D. McCarthy, the representative of the growers of this vicinity, went to San Francisco according to instructions to confer with the officers of the Commission Men's Association in regard to the trouble with the railroad. The men wish the merchants to put in writing their demands on the railroad. Then the shippers say they will back them up. A meeting of the commission merchants will be called the early part of next month, at which the matter will be brought up for discussion.

Meanwhile, the railroad companies have been sending men out into the country to interview the farmers and find out just what their complaint is and if possible, settle the difficulty quickly.

The shippers have told these agents just where they stand in the matter and informed them that something must be done at once to remedy the trouble, else the growers will do their own freight hauling.

APPOINTMENT MADE.

Edward S. Worthing has received word from the postoffice authorities at Washington that he has been appointed carrier for the new free delivery route. He will commence work on July 1st.

REBEKAH'S ANNIVERSARY.

The members of Rose-Rodach Lodge, No. 224, I. O. O. F., will celebrate the anniversary of the founding of the lodge this evening. An interesting musical and literary program has been arranged. The gentlemen of an Leandrolodge, No. 231, I. O. O. F., will be the guests of the ladies during the evening.

The postmistress has posted the following list of letters now remaining undelivered at the San Leandro postoffice:

Machino Vierra Fontes, John Mary Silva, Mrs. J. T. Victor.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Gibbons have removed to San Jose.

A. J. Lloyd was in San Jose on business last week.

Earl McArdle, agent for Wells, Fargo & Co., is now assistant bookkeeper in Joseph Herscher's store.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

BERKELEY, April 30.—The date of the "dove" dance of the senior class has been changed from May 9 to May 11th.

The men of the senior class will banquet on May 11th.

Professor S. Foster, who has charge of the United States agricultural experiment station for Montana, is visiting Professor Elwood Mead.

Professor Albin Putter delivered a lecture in room 13, North Hall, this afternoon on Goethe, with special reference to "Faust." Professor Hermann Grimm spoke of this as "the greatest work of all times and nations." A number of outside visitors were present, which was greatly enjoyed.

HAYWARDS, April 30.—The Board of Trustees held a special meeting last evening.

The petition of Hunt Brothers' Canning Company to have two extra lights on H street near the cannery, was reported on favorably by the Committee on Lights.

"A" STREET HILL.

The City Attorney made his report on the legal status of A street, where the hill is located. He found that originally there was a triangular piece of land on the southeast corner, where the street turns, which was, according to the map, part of the street. This ground has never been used as a street, and those occupying it have a legal right to the spot.

There was considerable discussion by different members of the board as to the cutting down of the hill and the grading of the street, with the present boundary line between the property owners, excepting two, are in favor of having the street cut.

The Town Engineer was instructed to find out the length of the frontage of the different property owners on A street, between First and Center streets, and furnish plans, specifications, and estimates of cost for grading and curbing the thoroughfare. He was further ordered to estimate the cost of work, cement and grouted gutters, the report to be made to the board next Wednesday evening.

Chairman Howe was given another week in which to make his report on the testing of are lamps for street lighting.

IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY.

The Ladies' Improvement Society held their regular weekly meeting Tuesday afternoon in the Town hall. Routine business was transacted and the matter of improving the place was discussed.

T. H. Russell was awarded the contract for putting in the curbing and doing the other work on the square. A committee to look after the matter was then appointed.

Yesterday Contractor Russell met the committee and in the evening the work could not well be commenced until after rain has fallen. So nothing will be done in regard to the matter until the ground is sufficiently moist.

Three new members have been recently taken into the society and a number more will be added next week.

PERSONAL.

Miss MacConnell of San Francisco was the guest of Miss G. Goodell.

Mrs. A. Bailey of Oakland was the guest of Mrs. E. M. Owen.

Mrs. G. B. Grenfell and daughter of Modesto, visited friends here.

Mrs. W. D. Hull is the guest of Mrs. R. Hickmott in Redd valley.

T. H. Martin of San Francisco has accepted a position in the Ramage hardware store.

Rev. B. Dent Naylor, C. O. Johnson and Henry Neudose took part in the Odd Fellows' initiation at San Leandro last week, when their Methodist minister was admitted into the order.

ELMHURST, April 30.—The incorporation project having fallen through here, the residents are now agitating the question of petitioning the Board of Supervisors to establish a sanitary district there. The place is growing and in several locations, houses are in very close proximity to one another. It is thought by many that, unless sewers are put in, the place will be unpleasant to live in under present conditions. The territory comprised in the proposed district lies east of the territory proposed to be included in the McCrease Sanitary District, which is to be voted for May 15th with the State road for its eastern boundary. The bay and foothills will serve as the limits on the south and north respectively.

OF THEIR OWN CHOICE.

Passengers on the Haywards electric line have often passed remarks regarding conductors and motormen eating their lunches on cars en route. Many people have thought that the company was not doing the right thing in not allowing their employees time off for meals. Investigation shows, however, that the men themselves are responsible for the condition of affairs. At a recent meeting of their union the members took a vote on the matter and the result was 22 to 5 in favor of eating on the cars.

The employees say they would rather put up with the convenience of taking their meals while at work than laying off an hour, which would take so much time from their longer recreation period.

FOOT BRUISED.

F. F. Plastrin, who boards at the Arlington hotel on Fourteenth street, and is employed as a machinist at the Stone ranch, painfully bruised his foot in the bellows machinery the other day. He is reported as rapidly recovering from the injury.

MAY HAVE BEEN ROBBED.

BERKELEY, April 30.—A man, well dressed and presenting a neat appearance and giving the name of S. B. Davidson, wandered into the blacksmith shop of W. A. McIntosh yesterday afternoon. His action indicated that he was out of his head, all that he can say of himself being that he comes from Downville—how down he was he did not know. The local lodge of Masons has taken care of the stranger. It is possible that the elderly gentleman may have been drugged and robbed and thus rendered temporarily insane.

EMERYVILLE, April 30.—The Oakland Transit Company has a large construction crew at work putting in a crossing on San Pablo avenue where the track leading from the subway will cross the San Pablo tracks. It will be a double-track affair and will be laid as soon as the grading can be completed.

ON CRUTCHES.

A. G. McDonald who was hurt some days ago by having two hundred pounds of dirt cove in on him is fast recovering from his injuries and is now able to be out on crutches. It will be some time, however, before he can use his foot again, which was badly injured by the falling earth.

PAST WORK.

The new brick building that is being erected by the Oakland Meat Company in the western part of Emeryville is fast approaching completion. The structure is being built of brick and will be used as a packing-house when completed.

WALKS COMPLETED.

The work of laying the cement walks around the new Town Hall and through the grounds was completed today and work will be commenced immediately on the concrete basement of the hall which latter place will be used as a jail when completed.

GRADING PROGRESSING.

A good sized force of men and teams are at work grading for the Santa Fe tracks which will come into Emeryville close to the subway from Point Richmond. Track-laying has been in progress from the latter place for some time and the route at this end will soon be ready for the ties and rails.
